Dear Potential Sponsor,

I am writing you to invite you to join us for an educational and inspirational event we are hosting in September.

It takes a community to battle cancer and to encourage cancer patients to stay in the fight. For nearly 23 years, CancerLINC, a unique local nonprofit that offers hope and help to cancer patients facing legal and financial challenges, has been at the forefront of advocating for local cancer patients and helping them find needed community resources.

We know firsthand how important it is for cancer patients to feel supported by their communities. That is why we are hosting CancerLINC's Circle of Hope Community Breakfast on Sept. 13 from 7:30 to 9 a.m. at RVA U-Turn Sports Performance Academy at 2101 Maywill Street, Richmond, VA 23230. The community breakfast will bring together Richmond's faith community, cancer care medical providers and treatment centers, nurse navigators, oncology staff, cancer advocates, caregivers and cancer survivors for a message of hope.

The keynote speaker for the event is national author and cancer care advocate Lynn Eib, whose book When God & Cancer Meet sold more than 100,000 copies. Eib founded the country's longest running faith-based support group and is a reporter-turned-author who worked for two decades as an oncology patient advocate. She is also a 29-year cancer survivor who has offered hope to thousands of cancer patients and their caregivers. Her latest book, Peace in the Face of Cancer, was released in 2017. For more information about Eib, visit www.lynneib.com.

WTVR-6 Morning Host Reba Hollingsworth will be the guest emcee, and Baritone Raymond Elmore will be the featured soloist. Bon Secours Health System is the title sponsor for the event.

I hope we can count on your support to bring together a community of advocates to encourage cancer patients as they navigate through their cancer journeys. Sponsorships are also available. For sponsorship information, visit www.CancerLINC.org/Breakfast or contact Chris.Williams@CancerLINC.org at (804) 562-0371.
